Felicitations during the Fellowship of Least Coin Service: Mrs. Jane R. Caleb, mother of Dr. Sunil Caleb, gave a background to the Fellowship of Least Coin movement. She stressed that it was started mainly by the Presbyterians after the Second World War for uplifting the condition of women by women. Dr. Lalrindiki emphasized on upholding the dignity of humanity through Biblical principles. The worship was entirely conducted by the Women's Guild by leading in prayers and songs. The offering was sent to the Diocesan Women's Fellowship for ministry to the poor and women.
